The Praxis of Alain Badiou takes up the challenge of explicating, extending and, in many places, criticising Badiou's stunningly original theses. Above all, the essays collected here put Badiou's concepts to the test in a confrontation with the four great headings that he himself has identified as essential to our humanity: science, love, art and politics.

Badiou examines the election of Trump not polemically, not sensationally, not with superficial talking points, but philosophically with an eye to political and historical analysis. Badiou has rarely been more incisive, clear and enlightening. Trump is not an isolated phenomenon. The wave of right-wing populism is rearing its ugly head worldwide.
