women are unimportant or invisible. Second, men and women are portrayed in stereotypical ways that reflect and sustain socially endorsed views of gender. Third, depictions of relationships between men and women emphasize traditional roles and normalize violence against women. We will consider each of these themes in this section.

Gendered Media: The Influence of Media on Views of Gender

Largely, Asian American women are thought of as faceless, quiet and invisible, or as sexual objects. In addition to the myth of the "Model Minority" and the "Forever Foreigner," these depictions and others have persisted in the media and popular culture. What are the current experiences of discrimination in terms of racism and sexism for Asian American women?
