Children's Health Books | Ask Dr Sears

Probably if I'd picked up a copy of The Baby Book before I got pregnant, I would have either decided that Dr. Sears was some kind of patriarchal-backlash, woman-hating fanatic, or I would have realized on the spot that yes, he was right, and therefore a person like me had no business having children. When I actually read The Baby Book, the ...

Why I Hate Dr. Sears | Brain, Child Magazine

What life looks like when your high needs baby grows into a high needs toddler. My daughter Erinn was the poster child for what child behavior expert Dr. William Sears has coined a "high needs baby." She woke frequently at night until about the 11-month mark, napped inconsistently and for very short spurts, refused to sit in bouncy chairs or other made-for-baby contraptions, angrily and ...
